

Cultivating Communities* presents: Securing Your Organization's Future - *Fundraising Fundamentals - Part I

Choose One of Two Sessions:
(Aft.) 3:30 to 5:30PM or (Eve.) 6:30 to 8:30PM

Thursday, November 8, 2001
in the Broughton Room of the Crook County Library
127 NW Meadow Lakes Drive, Prineville

Building a secure funding base is the very foundation of successful community programs! At this first session we'll review who contributes – as well as who's receiving – charitable support in the U.S. We'll examine the funding mix of individual giving, corporate sponsorships, special events, and foundation grants, as well as earned income methods. Participants will learn how to evaluate their organization's fundraising efforts and begin the process of developing a customized resource development plan for their group. This session is a prerequisite to registering for November 28 - Fundraising Fundamentals - Part II.

Community volunteers, board members, and nonprofit staff are encouraged to attend! Pre-registration is required. Register one of three ways:

- 1. *Send an email to Deborah Krause, at longhollow@usa.net, or,
- 2. *Call Deborah Krause/E.J. Honton in Prineville at 541/462-3130, or,
- 3. *Send a fax with the necessary information to them at: 801/409-8703

Please include your contact information and the name of your group as well as the session you wish to attend (Aft. or Eve.). Suggested at-the-door donation of $5.00 per person (payable to the Crook County Commission on Children and Families) to cover the cost of materials.

Cultivating Communities, designed to bolster nonprofit community programs in Grant County and Crook County, is sponsored by the Shelk Advised Fund of the Oregon Community Foundation.

Presented by Claro, LLC, a nonprofit management consultancy based in Crook County.

Please copy and distribute to others!